Sentence of Scripture

Blessed are you when people hate and revile and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven.

Luke 6.22-23

The Prayer of the day

We praise you, heavenly Father,
that you have knit together your chosen ones
in one communion and fellowship
in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord:
give us grace so to follow your blessed saints
in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys
you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ our Saviour,
who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns,
one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Daniel

In the first year of King Belshazzar of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and visions of his head as he lay in bed. Then he wrote down the dream: I, Daniel, saw in my vision by night the four winds of heaven stirring up the great sea, and four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. As for me, Daniel, my spirit was troubled within me, and the visions of my head terrified me. I approached one of the attendants to ask him the truth concerning all this. So he said that he would disclose to me the interpretation of the matter: 'As for these four great beasts, four kings shall arise out of the earth. But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom for ever—for ever and ever.' Daniel 7.1-3, 15-18
Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 149

O praise the Lord, and sing to the Lord a new song:

O praise him in the assembly of the faithful.

Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:

let the children of Zion be joyful in their king.

Let them praise him in the dance:

let them sing his praise with timbrel and with harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people:

he adorns the meek with his salvation.

Let his faithful ones exult in his glory:

let them sing for joy upon their beds.

Let the high praises of God be in their mouths:

and a two-edged sword in their hands,

To execute vengeance on the nations:
and chastisement upon the peoples,
To bind their kings in chains:
and their nobles with fetters of iron,
To visit upon them the judgement that is decreed:
such honour belongs to all his faithful servants.
Praise the Lord.

A Reading from The Letter to the Ephesians

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory. I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Ephesians 1.11-23

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

‘Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

‘Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

‘Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

‘Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man.

Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

‘But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

‘Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

‘Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

‘Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

‘But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bleed those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you.

If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt.

Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again.

Do to others as you would have them do to you. Luke 6.20-31

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Dean's Reflection

Today we commemorate All Saints/All Souls. This is one of my favourite festivals for a whole host of reasons. Many of us never forget those whom we've loved who have died; many folk have recounted to me over the years a sense of their loved ones still being with them – whether as a warm memory, or someone conversed with mentally, or even as a presence. We all experience these things differently – and there's some reticence to talk about it, lest we're seen as crazy.

But All Saints gives us permission to bring our loved ones to mind. It reminds us that we are part of the “great cloud of witnesses” who have gone before us, and with whom we are still connected. A well-respected bishop of my acquaintance reminded a seminar a few years ago that though our loved ones – the saints – are dead to us, yet they are alive in Christ. We are people of resurrection; we believe that those who die are in the hands of God and nothing evil can touch them. So at All saints we remember and celebrate this precious truth: death is not the end of the story.

During the service today you'll be invited to light a candle and name those people you carry in your heart. If you can't be at church, why not do something similar at home, light a candle and remember.

Your Dean, Keren

Celebration of the 30th Anniversary of the ordination of women as priests in the Anglican Church of Australia

St Paul's will be hosting a service on Sunday 13th November at 3:30pm celebrating the ministry of women in the Diocese of Gippsland, and especially the 30th Anniversary of the ordination of the first women priests in the Anglican Church of Australia. All welcome; sparkling refreshments will be served afterwards. This will be livestreamed.

Chapter news Lots of fantastic news at Chapter!

- 1.) It is 15 years since Delbridge Hall was opened and with a recent generous donation, we have been able to fully pay off the loan. THANK YOU to all who have used money boxes and donated via the 'Brick' money boxes and other donations, over $18,000 in total. The loan was supposed to be paid out in March 2025! This has also saved $4870 in interest payments.
- 2.) We have received a bequest for $50,000
- 3.) Plant Sale net takings inc donations was approx. $5500
 - Raffle tickets raised ~ $400
 - Cakes ~$880
 - Devonshire Teas ~$190
 - Chapter has agreed to donate $1375 (25%) to local charities.
 - Full reports in AGM reports
- 4.) The financial year has ended very positively. AGM report next week.
- 5.) Chapter is delighted to announce that we have received a Sustainability Victoria grant of $8,155 to install solar panels on Delbridge Hall. This will significantly reduce greenhouse gas emissions from the Cathedral complex, as well as greatly reducing the cost of our electricity.

This project is supported by the Community Climate Change and Energy Action program, which is delivered by Sustainability Victoria on behalf of the Victorian Government.

We are also grateful for the support of the Gippsland Power Hub, which alerted us to this grant, paid for our energy audit, and provided helpful advice. The grant will pay for close to half of the final cost of the solar system. Chapter is now inviting donations towards the remaining cost of $7155, the total after donations already received. Donations can be made via internet bank transfer (identify as 'solar'), or via an envelope in the offertory marked 'solar'. Tax deductible donations may be made by direct transfer to Anglican Earthcare Gippsland: Correct details for this coming soon.

We hope to have the solar system up and running by the end January 2023.

In our day of thanksgiving –
NEH 208

1. In our day of thanksgiving
one psalm let us offer
for the saints who before us
have found their reward;
when the shadow of death fell upon
them,
we sorrowed,
but now we rejoice
that they rest in the Lord.

2. In the morning of life,
and at noon, and at even,
he called them away
from our worship below;
but not till his love,
at the font and the altar,
had girt them with grace
for the way they should go.

3. These bricks that have echoed
their praises are holy,
and dear is the ground
where their feet have once trod;
yet here they confessed
they were strangers and pilgrims,
and still they were seeking
the city of God.

4. Sing praise, then, for all who here
sought
and here found him,
whose journey is ended,
whose perils are past:
they believed in the Light;
and its glory is round them,
where the clouds of earth's sorrow
are lifted at last.

William Henry Draper, 1894
New English Hymnal - Public Domain

Taize – In the Lord I'll be ever thankful (During Communion)

In the Lord I'll be ever thankful, in the Lord I will rejoice.

Look to God: do not be afraid, lift up your voices the Lord is here,
lift up your voices the Lord is here.
