LITURGY OF THE PALMS

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

This morning begins the Great Week of the Christian Year.

During Lent we have been preparing by works of love and self-sacrifice for the celebration of the Lord's death and resurrection.

With Christians throughout the world,
we come together this week to call to mind,
and to express in word and action,
the centre of the Easter mystery:
our Lord's Passover from death to life.

Christ entered in triumph into the Holy City

to complete his work as Messiah:

to suffer, to die and to rise to new life.

Today we commit ourselves to walk the way of the cross,

so that, sharing his sufferings,

we may be united with him in his risen life.

All may hold up their palms for this blessing.

Sovereign God, we thank you for these palm branches palm crosses.

By your +blessing may they be for us signs of the victory of your Son.

May we who carry them in his name ever hail him as our Messiah, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life;

who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,

one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Palm Gospel

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark, chapter 11, beginning at verse 1.

Hosanna in the highest.

When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples and said to them, ‘Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, “Why are you doing this?” just say this, “The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.” ’ They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, ‘What are you doing, untying the colt?’ They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting,

‘Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David!

Hosanna in the highest heaven!’

Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Let us praise Jesus our Messiah,
as did the crowds who welcomed him to Jerusalem.

Let us proceed in peace.

In the name of Christ. Amen.

All Glory, praise and honour TiS 333

*All glory, praise and honour
to you, redeemer, king,
to whom the lips of children
made sweet hosannas ring.*

You are the king of Israel
and David's royal son,
now in the Lord's name coming,
the king and blessed one.

Refrain

The company of angels
are praising you on high,
and we and all creation
exultant make reply.

Refrain

The people of the Hebrews with palms before you went:
our praise and prayer and anthems
before you we present.

We pause at the entrance to the church building and this prayer is said:
Merciful God, as we enter this holy week
and gather at your house of prayer,
turn our hearts again to Jerusalem,
to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ,
that, united with Christ and all the faithful,
we may one day enter in triumph the city not made with hands,
the new Jerusalem, eternal in the heavens,
where, with you and the Holy Spirit,
Christ lives in glory forever. Amen.

Refrain

To you before your passion
they sang their hymns of praise:
to you now high exalted
our melody we raise.

Refrain

Their praises you accepted:
accept the prayers we bring,
who in all good take pleasure,
our good and gracious king.

Refrain

A reading from the Prophet Isaiah

The Lord GOD has given me
the tongue of a teacher,
that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word.

Morning by morning he wakens—
wakens my ear
to listen as those who are taught.
The Lord GOD has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious,
I did not turn backwards.
I gave my back to those who struck me,
and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard;
I did not hide my face
from insult and spitting.
The Lord GOD helps me;
therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like flint,
and I know that I shall not be put to shame;
he who vindicates me is near.
Who will contend with me?
Let us stand up together.
Who are my adversaries?
Let them confront me.
It is the Lord GOD who helps me;
who will declare me guilty?
All of them will wear out like a garment;
the moth will eat them up.

Isaiah 50.4-9a

For the word of the Lord
thanks be to God.

Psalms 31.9-18

Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble:
my eye wastes away for grief, my throat also and my inward parts.
For my life wears out in sorrow, and my years with sighing:
my strength fails me in my affliction,
and my bones are consumed.
I am become the scorn of all my enemies:
and my neighbours wag their heads in derision.
I am a thing of horror to my friends:
and those that see me in the street shrink from me.
I am forgotten like one dead and out of mind:
I have become like a broken vessel.
For I hear the whispering of many:
and fear is on every side;

While they plot together against me:
and scheme to take away my life.

But in you, Lord, have I put my trust:
I have said "You are my God."

All my days are in your hand:
O deliver me from the power of my enemies
and from my persecutors.

Make your face to shine upon your servant:
and save me for your mercy's sake.

A reading from the letter to the Philippians

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God
as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—
even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him
and gave him the name
that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2.5-11

For the word of the Lord
thanks be to God.

Reflection:

We have probably all met someone who, like the unpleasant Uriah Heep in David Copperfield claims to be 'the 'umblest person going'. Jesus, on the other hand, is a wonderful example of genuine humility not because He hides His gifts but because unlike Heep He is not falsely humble.

Reflect on your life right now. Are you someone who sees others as equals no matter their circumstance?

- Pray that you can see and treat everyone as an equal.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East
