A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them.

All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem.

And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each.

Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language?

Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.'

All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?'

But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: 'Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say.

Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning.

No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

"In the last days it will be, God declares,
that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh,

and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,

and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.
Even upon my slaves, both men and women,
in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.
And I will show portents in the heaven above
and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.
The sun shall be turned to darkness
and the moon to blood,
before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.
Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved." Acts 2.1-21
Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104.26-36

Lord, how various are your works:
in wisdom you have made them all,
and the earth is full of your creatures.
There is the wide, immeasurable sea:
there move living things without number, great and small;
There go the ships, to and fro:
and there is that Leviathan whom you formed to sport in the deep.
These all look to you:
to give them their food in due season.
When you give it to them, they gather it:
when you open your hand
they are satisfied with good things.
When you hide your face, they are troubled:
when you take away their breath,
they die and return to their dust.
When you send forth your spirit they are created:
and you renew the face of the earth.
May the glory of the Lord endure for ever:
may the Lord rejoice in his works.
If he look upon the earth, it shall tremble:
if he but touch the mountains, they shall smoke.
I will sing to the Lord as long as I live:
I will praise my God while I have any being.
May my meditation be pleasing to him:
for my joy shall be in the Lord.

A Reading from Paul's First letter to the Corinthians

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says 'Let Jesus be cursed!' and no one can say 'Jesus is Lord' except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit. 1 Corinthians 12.1-13

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, 'Peace be with you.' After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, 'Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.' When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.' John 20.19-23

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Reflection: (by members of St Paul's during May – July)

Out of Egypt but now in the wilderness, the people complain to Moses that manna is not enough – they want meat. Moses complains to God about the burden of leadership and God says he will put some of his spirit on 70 elders to share out the responsibility. It happens and Moses is glad. This is also just what happened at Pentecost, and ever since – God's Spirit is given to all believers so that we can share in mission and ministry, and no one has to carry all the load. How good is that?!

- Thank God that his Spirit equips us all and pray that we may know and do our part.

- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Episcopal Church of Jerusalem and the Middle East

Mavis House Some of you may know and remember Mavis Jennings, a colourful local character and artist who lived on Cunninghame St. Mavis has generously left her house to the Cathedral parish, including her art collection. We are very grateful for this generous gift, which will provide some endowment for the parish in the future. We are planning to display some of Mavis' work either as part of the Art Show later in the year, or in its own right as a way of honouring her legacy. Most probably there will be some community partnerships in running art workshops in the house - part of the conditions of gift. Please contact Nancy if you can help sort!

Highlights from an enthusiastic and productive Chapter meeting.

- Mavis Jennings has left her house and a generous sum to help with maintenance of the house to the parish.
- The Cathedral Parish has given $1000 towards supporting Moses Baiduduga from the Diocese of Popondetta who is a student at Newton Theological College.
- The Audio Visual equipment will be updated, including a new projector and good wifi internet in the hall and community room. This will be paid for using bequest money.
- The ridge capping on the cathedral roof above the sanctuary has finally been fixed. This was an insurance paid job.
- Child safety and Family Violence policies were discussed and these can be viewed on the Gippsland diocese website.
- Ideas were discussed around ways we can support and promote climate change.
- Several Sub committees have been formed.
