A Reading from the Book of Exodus

The Lord said to Moses, 'Cut two tablets of stone like the former ones, and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the former tablets, which you broke.

Be ready in the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai and present yourself there to me, on the top of the mountain.

No one shall come up with you, and do not let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain; and do not let flocks or herds graze in front of that mountain.'

So Moses cut two tablets of stone like the former ones; and he rose early in the morning and went up on Mount Sinai, as the Lord had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tablets of stone.

The Lord descended in the cloud and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name, 'The Lord.'

The Lord passed before him, and proclaimed,

'The Lord, the Lord,

a God merciful and gracious,

slow to anger,

and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness,

keeping steadfast love for the thousandth generation,

forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin,

yet by no means clearing the guilty,

but visiting the iniquity of the parents

upon the children and the children's children,

to the third and the fourth generation.'

And Moses quickly bowed his head towards the earth, and worshipped.

Exodus 34.1-8

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

worthy to be praised and exalted for ever. 3YM ( APBA p399)

A Reading from The Second Letter to the Corinthians

Finally, brothers and sisters, farewell. Put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you. 2 Corinthians 13.11-13

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, ‘All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.’ Matthew 28.16-20

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Reflection: (by members of St Paul's during May – July)

When the Lord appeared before Moses, he worshipped. When the eleven disciples saw Jesus risen from the dead, they worshipped. When we meet the Triune God in our reading of the Scriptures, in our prayers to the Father through Jesus his Son, in our meditation and contemplation in our communion with the Holy Spirit, when we meet together in fellowship with others who know God, we too can do nothing but worship.

- We pray that our worship of our Triune God might grow richer and deeper.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Church of the Province of Central Africa.

Month of June Mission: Mission to Seafarers

The Mission to Seafarers is an international mission of the Anglican Church which cares for the practical and spiritual welfare of seafarers of all nationalities and faiths.

There are 230 mission sites around the world, and four centres in Victoria at Melbourne, Portland, Geelong and Hastings. The work is carried out by a small number of staff, chaplains and volunteers who give freely of their time 365 days of the year.

Each centre houses the 'Flying Angel Club' where seafarers are welcomed by a friendly face and can contact their families by phone or internet, and receive counselling during times of injustice or distress.

The Mission to Seafarers Victoria ship visiting program supports crew who do not receive shore leave and is a vital service to ensure these crew have the provisions and support they require.

While most seafarers are well treated, some are still abandoned in ports far from their homes, or remain unpaid or forced to work in unsafe or unacceptable conditions. In such situations, the Mission plays a vital role in providing practical care and moral support.
