Sentence of Scripture

Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. 1 Corinthians 10:17

Prayer of the day

Grant, Lord,

that we who receive the holy sacrament
of the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, may be the means by which the work of his incarnation shall go forward:
take, consecrate, break and distribute us,
to be for others a means of your grace,
and vehicles of your eternal love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Hope 25

God of hope,
you fill those who trust in you
with peace and joy:
give us the gift of your Spirit
so that we may overflow
with the hope we have in Jesus,
shine with his presence,
and share the good news with others. Amen

A Reading from the Book of Exodus

Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, 'All the words that the Lord has spoken we will do.' And Moses wrote down all the words of the Lord. He rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and set up twelve pillars, corresponding to the twelve tribes of Israel. He sent young men of the people of Israel, who offered burnt-offerings and sacrificed oxen as offerings of well-being to the Lord. Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he dashed against the altar. Then he took the book of the covenant, and read it in the hearing of the people; and they said, 'All that the Lord has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient.' Moses took the blood and dashed it on the people, and said, 'See the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words.'

Exodus 24.3-8

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God

A Reading from the first letter to the Corinthians

Therefore, my dear friends, flee from the worship of idols. I speak as to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. Consider the people of Israel; are not those who eat the sacrifices partners in the altar? What do I imply then? That food sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be partners with demons. You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons.

1 Corinthians 10.14–21

Hear the word of the Lord,

Thanks be to God

Psalm 116

I love the Lord, because he heard my voice:

the voice of my supplication;

Because he inclined his ear to me:

in the day that I called to him.

The cords of death encompassed me,
the snares of the grave took hold on me:

I was in anguish and sorrow.

Then I called upon the name of the Lord:

‘O Lord, I beseech you, deliver me !’

Gracious and righteous is the Lord:

full of compassion is our God.

The Lord preserves the simple:

when I was brought low, he saved me.

Return, O my soul, to your rest:

for the Lord has rewarded you.

For you, O Lord, have delivered my soul from death:

my eyes from tears and my feet from falling.

I will walk before the Lord:

in the land of the living.

I believed that I would perish, I was brought very low:

I said in my haste ‘Everyone is a liar.’

How shall I repay the Lord:

for all his benefits to me?

I will take up the cup of salvation:

and call upon the name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows to the Lord:

in the presence of all his people.

Grievous in the sight of the Lord:

is the death of his faithful ones.

O Lord, I am your servant,

your servant and the child of your handmaid:

you have unloosed my bonds.

I will offer you a sacrifice of thanksgiving:

and call upon the name of the Lord.

I will pay my vows to the Lord:

in the presence of all his people,

In the courts of the house of the Lord:

even in your midst, O Jerusalem. Praise the Lord.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

On the first day of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, his disciples said to him, ‘Where do you want us to go and make the preparations for you to eat the Passover?’ So he sent two of his disciples, saying to them, ‘Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you; follow him, and wherever he enters, say to the owner of the house, “The Teacher asks, Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?” He will show you a large room upstairs, furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there.’ So the disciples set out and went to the city, and found everything as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover meal. While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, ‘Take; this is my body.’ Then he took a cup, and after giving thanks he gave it to them, and all of them drank from it. He said to them, ‘This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.’ When they had sung the hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. Mark 14.12–16, 14.22–26

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Today we celebrate Corpus Christi or Thanksgiving For The Holy Communion. This feast is liturgically celebrated on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday

Reflection

Today we celebrate the institution of the Eucharist, the Church’s food on earth. Mark tells us how it happened, in the middle of Jesus’ betrayal by Judas at a Passover meal. Despite all of the drama caused by Judas, Jesus nonetheless thinks of the ongoing life of the disciples after his death and tells them that whenever they eat bread and drink wine, they are to remember that he is giving them his Body and Blood.

- Lord, help me to be strengthened by the Sacred Banquet as I receive Christ’s Body and Blood under the guise of bread and wine.
- Give thanks for the work of and witness of Alongside Hope/Auprès de l’espoir (formerly the Anglican Church of Canada’s Primate’s World Relief and Development Fund)

Dean's Desk

This week in the bishop's unexpected absence, I chaired the senior staff and Bishop in Council meetings. Whew! It was a different kind of a step, and gave me an appreciation of what it's like to "hold space" for the entire Diocese. He has big shoes, is my reflection! Do pray for our Bishop Richard, who is very unwell.

Yesterday members of Chapter and the ministry team gathered for the follow up to our May Talking Circles workshop with Michael Wood. It was a workshop that was 100% on point: we delved into how we have difficult conversations, how we listen to one another, how we step away from our attachments to an issue to focus on the issue itself, and how we respond when others make snarky comments. I hope that we'll be able to bring some of the fruit of that session into the wider mix of our parish community.

This coming week Kate and I are away at clergy conference at Raymond Island until Thursday. Please pray for the diocesan clergy as we meet. On the agenda is conversation about the Diocesan Vision and Bystander Training which is part of our professional development - but really something we can all learn and benefit from; how else do we address the scourge of domestic and family violence and some of its byproducts (like its outcomes for young people)?

Next Sunday evening there's an opportunity for us to gather in the community room at 4pm to join in the Provincial Evensong service from St Paul's Melbourne.

Book fair We sold 2 very old, late 1800s bibles on an online auction to book restorers, they were both really falling apart. RHS pic sold for $100, the same one in a good condition would go for $3000! The restorers bought it just for the brass fittings to restore a better copy, although he will restore this one to some degree. LHS Bible was sold for $50.

We have raised nearly $2000 via Janelle and the ebay book sales so far this year. We are so blessed with this partnership. We are learning what sells, and she regularly collects and checks what we think might be worth more than we can sell it for at the book fair. Usually we have up to 20% fees, then we share the rest, split 50% each way with Janelle. They are posted all over Australia.

We are a bit quiet at the moment on incoming books, please spread the word we are wanting them all year.

Thanks to Wendy, Lyn and Liz who faithfully sort and pack books each week. Most of our 150 boxes of last year leftovers have gone to Vinnies Opshops. Thanks Rob!

You are warmly invited to attend the midyear concert of Yallourn Madrigal Singers entitled My Family and Other Animals. on Saturday 28 June at 2.00 pm at St James Anglican Church, Grey St Traralgon.

They have a delightful selection of choral music on the theme of the animal kingdom (Including humans!). Concert tickets: $25 per adult and $5 for school students and includes a delicious afternoon tea.

Emily Sanzaro Harp Concert St Paul's Cathedral Friday July 4th 2025 7.30pm

EMILY SANZARO is an innovative contemporary harpist, vocalist, violinist & electronic loop artist based in Launceston, Tasmania.

Emily enjoys playing a wide range of musical genres on the harp, harnessing the versatility of the instrument and relishes any opportunity to depart from the type of music audiences expect to hear from a harp though she also loves to weave in a sprinkle of the traditional. Emily specialises in creating original compositions, contemporary arrangements with a twist, and experimental improvisations.

Emily really doesn't sit comfortably in a single genre, rather embracing variety and a broad scope from jazz, celtic traditional, classical and contemporary. One is encouraged to bring an open mind to Emily's performance and leave expectations at the door.

Emily is a versatile performer, with experience in numerous solo and collaborative performance contexts within Tasmania and beyond. Emily has completed 3 solo residencies at MONA (Hobart's Museum of Old and New Art; the largest private museum in the Southern Hemisphere), has performed by invitation at TedX Hobart and released her debut album of original music in 2021 to 5 sold out shows at MONA FOMA festival in 2022.
