Cathedral Parish Vision: *People of Christian faith –
Encouraging connection between the Divine and the everyday.*

24th August
Bartholomew A&M

Sentence from Scripture

Sing to the Lord, bless his name, tell his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the nations, his marvellous works among all peoples. Psalms 96.2–3

Prayer of the Day

Almighty and everlasting God,
who gave to your apostle Bartholomew
grace to believe and to preach your word:
grant that your Church may love that word which he believed and may faithfully receive
and boldly preach it;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you
and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Hope 25

God of hope,
you fill those who trust in you
with peace and joy:
give us the gift of your Spirit
so that we may overflow
with the hope we have in Jesus,
shine with his presence,
and share the good news with others. Amen

A Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy

The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet.

This is what you requested of the Lord your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: 'If I hear the voice of the Lord my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die.'

Then the Lord replied to me: 'They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command.'

Deuteronomy 18.15-18

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 145.10-18

All creation praises you, O Lord:

and your faithful servants bless your name.

They speak of the glory your kingdom:

and tell of your great might,

That the whole earth may know your mighty acts:

And the glorious splendour of your kingdom.

Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom:

and your dominion endures through all generations.

The Lord upholds all those who stumble:

And raises up those that are bowed down.

The eyes of all look to you in hope:
And you give them food in due season;
You open wide your hand:
And fill all things living with your bounteous gift.
The Lord is just in all his ways:
and faithful in all His dealings.
The Lord is near to all who call upon Him:
to all who call upon Him in truth.

A Reading from the Book of Revelation

Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and said to ‘Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb. And in the spirit He carried me away to a great, high mountain, and showed me the great holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. It has the glory of God and a radiance like a very rare jewel, like jasper, clear as crystal. It has a great, high wall with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates are inscribed the names of the twelve tribes of the Israelites; on the east three gates; on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

And the wall of the city has twelve foundations, and on them are the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

Revelation 21.9b-14

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, ‘Woman, you are set free from your ailment.’ When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, ‘There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the sabbath day.’ But the Lord answered him and said, ‘You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the sabbath day?’ When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing. Luke 13.10-17

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

ABM – celebrating 175 years!

I went on ABM's Encounter Program as a school chaplain on behalf of Selwyn College, Senior Secondary School in the Anglican Church of Melanesia and it was a great opportunity for me as I learned and experienced different school setup, leadership managements, pastoral care giving approach including the context and establishment of new links between the Anglican schools in Australia and ACOM Schools in Solomon Islands. The schools in Solomon Islands are changing with contemporary times. It is therefore important for us to experience the context in Australian Schools and chaplaincy responsibilities involved. I recommend that we must continue rekindle our relationship and mission strategy again to make friends and build new understanding that will build bridges to further strengthen relationships between our two provinces with mutual support towards a balance and holistic mission and church growth in this 21st century.

I am positively aware that in the future ABM Encounter Program will continue to ignite the new Spirit of building strong connections and relationships between our two Provinces of making the Gospel of Christ known to all in our own context of making disciples for the Kingdom of God.

Finally, I acknowledge the ABM staff especially those whom I personally encountered during my three months in Australia through the program, especially Dr Julianne Stewart, Lorraine Forster, and Robert McLean, as well as Board member Stephen Harrison. I also met the current Archbishop of Brisbane when he was a Rector at St Mark's in Sunshine Coast. He is the grandson of Bishop Baddley, one of the missionary Bishops in Melanesia. To God be the Glory great things He has done. Shalom.

The Rt Rev Rickson Maomaoru (Diocese of Southern Malaita and Sikaiana).

Dean's Desk

At Evensong today at 5pm we welcome students and staff from our Anglican Schools, Gippsland Grammar, and St Paul's Anglican Grammar School. It's wonderful to have the opportunity to share in this beautiful and classic service with you, and we're so grateful for the connections we have with our schools.

One of the big pieces of news this week is that the renovations on Mavis house are about a month away from being finished. We are planning to rent the house to MADEC from October, to house PALM workers - those who come out from the Pacific Islands to work here picking fruit and vegetables. It's a great way to offer support to our community, and for us more directly to support to those who will live there, many of whom are people of faith.

Next Sunday we will be hosting the ACTinG service for the beginning of the Season of Creation at 4pm. Do come along if you're able to support our Diocese in our care for creation.

August Mission of the Month: Anglicare Victoria.

We will be collecting Christmas presents again for Anglicare soon.

Anglicare Victoria works with children, young people and families. Supporting tens of thousands of Victorians every year, our 1700+ staff and volunteers operate from more than 45 sites across the state, as well as delivering assistance online, at home and in the community. We are Victoria's largest provider of Out of Home Care and Family Services, and one of Australia's most innovative agencies in working with vulnerable children youth and families.

Anglicare was formed in 1997, following the amalgamation of three of the state's most experienced child and family welfare agencies: the Mission of St. James and St. John, St. John's Homes for Boys and Girls, and the Mission to the Streets and Lanes.

See the display in the foyer. For more information, or to donate online:

<https://www.anglicarevic.org.au/>

Or place money an envelope marked Anglicare and add to the offertory bag on Sunday. Please pray for the work of Anglicare and especially for Wendy Mawoyo, the Parish Partnerships Coordinator for our region.

What's on at the Abbey: <https://www.theabbey.org.au/>

September 18th - Hush Quiet Day: Labyrinth Journey – Walking with Intent.

October 9th - Hush Quiet Day: Triangle of Rhetoric: Ethos, Pathos & Logos.
Facilitator: Kevin Broughton. From the storytelling of First Nations Elders to the hymns and poetry of the Celtic tradition, from the parables of Jesus to the wisdom woven through many faith paths - human beings have always sought to share truth in ways that connect heart, mind, and spirit.

October 24th - 25th - Diocesan retreat : Grace and the Holy Spirit. Facilitator: Revd Kate Campbell. Grace represents God's compassion and love for us even when we fall short, and the Holy Spirit is a constant presence. How might the Holy Spirit be active participants in our lives if we were to take Jesus' words seriously? How might we allow more grace into our lives and our world? How would it be if we slowed down and paid closer attention to one of God's greatest gifts to us?

October 26th - 31st - Meditation and Mindfulness in the Christian Tradition.
Facilitator: Roland Ashby.
